1. Introduction

Jan-Ove Becker, as new president of the labour law commission, welcomed everybody.

2. 2016/2017 round up of commission events to date

A short recap of the last 12 months commission events was made; Lille flex work seminar, Verona half year conference, La Clusaz restructuring seminar, Riga half year conference and Tokyo annual congress.

3. The Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar in Bratislava

The commission aims to yearly (preferably in October) organise the Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar with “hot topics”. This year’s seminar will take place in Bratislava 13-14 October 2017. The seminar is a double seminar organised together with the T.R.A.D.E. commission.

4. Half-Year Conference Autumn 2017 in Girona

The conference will be held 15-18 November 2017. A commission meeting will be held.

5. Half-Year Conference spring 2018 in Warsaw

The conference will be held 23-27 May 2018. A commission meeting will be held.

6. Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar in Turin 2018

Nicky de Groot, Rebekka Strumpfrock and Matteo Cocuzza are organizing the Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar in Turin 4-6 October 2018. The seminar is a double seminar organized together with the corporate and M&A commission. Volunteer speakers are welcome to turn to Nicky, Rebekka, Matteo or to the commission officers. The planning for the seminar is well ahead and the draft program is again on “hot topics”.

7. Future Events/ Proposals for new events for 2019

The members were encouraged to come forward with ideas for future events and contact the commission officers.

8. New commission officers

Andreas White was given a warm thank you for his years as president for the labour law commission. Jan-Ove Becker is now stepping up as president for the commission. New vice-president (labour law) will be Caroline Barbe. Rebecka Thörn (labour law) will continue as vice-president together with Yoav Noy (immigration law).
