

LLM IN TRANSNATIONAL COMMERCIAL PRACTICE

A special opportunity for AIJA members

The LL.M. in Transnational Commercial Practice is based on a partnership among Lazarski University (Poland's leading law school), Eötvös Loránd University (Hungary's leading law school), Boston University (a top-ranked law school in the U.S.), and the Center for International Legal Studies (a 40-year heritage in international legal education).

Three sessions of two weeks each lead to the degree.

The next sessions will be held in Budapest 3-16 April and 12-25 June 2016. The degree may be completed over a two- to five-year period.

Courses are taught in English by faculty provided by the Center for International Legal Studies, Lazarski University, and Eötvös Loránd University.

Normal tuition US $3400 per session

50% tuition grants are available to AIJA applicants

www.legaledu.net

Enquiries office@cils.org

