

THE ONLY GLOBAL ASSOCIATION OF YOUNG LAWYERS

Family Fortunes in Unfortunate Business Situations – Les Fortunes familiales face aux infortunes professionnelles, AIJA : Rotterdam, 2006, 125 p.

Table of Contents

KOOPMANS Robert, Special Asset Management, 10 p.

SCOTT Justin, Protecting the Entrepreneur's Private Assets: The estate Planner's creativity in the search for Patrimonial Shields, 8 p.

COLLART Jean-Louis, Anticipation de l'échec – comment protéger les biens des entrepreneurs ainsi que les intérêts de leurs proches (...), 18 p.

ERBA Antonio, Italian report, 8 p.

O'CONNELL Susan, Irish report, 7 p.

PROTON Agnès, la situation en France, 21 p.

SALONEN Ville, Finnish report, 10 p.

STAUDENMAYER Michael, Corporate Law and business law aspects, 4 p.

WALLACE Kieran, In or Out of Court – Reorganisations for Family Companies, An accountant's View, 6 p.

GEERLINGS Jurgen, Managing the Family business – how to avoid trouble, 4 p.

GOYVAERTS Gerd, How to protect entrepreneur's assets and his nearest dearest from the tax authorities, 6 p.

TALARI Pekka, How Taxation can spoil the restructuring of a group of companies, 4 p.
COX Alexander, Marks & Spencern case study, 4 p.

POSPICH Carsten, Offsetting Tax Losses in Germany, 4 p.

DE WIJN Rob, Marks & Spencer beats Primarolo, 2 p.

CONWAY Shawn, The Rise and fall of a family business: the Bhold Worldron case, 7 p.