

From Peanut to Powerplant : The need for logistics : a legal perspective – De pantalon à paquebot : le besoins de services logistiques : la perspective juridique, AIJA, Rotterdam : 2008, 292 pages

Introduction

DE ATHAYDE Duarte, Presentation of an association for career building lawyers & in-house counsel, 9 pages

DEROGEE Emily, Welcome address, 35 pages

The lack of mandatory regimes : the need for general terms and conditions

KENNEDY Hugh, How it works in the UK & Ireland, 18 pages

BÖHMER Olivier, The Dutch approach to general conditions in the Netherlands, 13 pages

RIEDL Andreas, The law regarding general conditions in Germany, 40 pages

ROSING Jacob, General Conditions in Scandinavia – an introduction to selected issues, 17 pages

Pitfalls of the specific jurisdictions

WEEL Ernst, The salvator's role, 39 pages

VAN GYSEL Raf, The Belgian way of terms and conditions in the logistic industry, 8 pages

PREISSEL Sigrid, Providing logistic services in France, the applicable rules, 22 pages

MONTANARO Giovanna, Invoking general conditions in Switzerland, 9 pages

MONZANI Enrica, Logistics: keeping freight moving, 15 pages

SPIEGEL Judith, General conditions and private international law, 18 pages

More about logistics and liberty risks

STARMANS Michiel, A Shipowners view, 16 pages

LENTI Marco, The Italian Legal Logistic Landscape, 11 pages

DIEZ RAMOS David, Spain and its logistics particularities, 24 pages

ECKOLDT, Breaking through limitations of liability in the Netherlands, 8 pages