A conference presented by the IBA Maritime and Transport Law Committee and the AIJA Transport Law Commission, and supported by the IBA European Regional Forum

Full Speed Ahead: Recent challenges and solutions for the shipping industry

4–6 November 2010
The Marmara Taksim
Istanbul, Turkey

Topics include:
- Shipbuilding contracts
- Multimodal transportation
- Maritime competition law
- Global limitation and jurisdiction – with outset in the Cornelis Simon case

Who should attend?
Lawyers and company representatives involved in international maritime and transport law, vessel operations and/or acquisitions, and all those with an interest in maritime and transport law generally.

*As per the Solicitors Regulation Authority of England and Wales. The number of CPD points/hours available may vary for other bar associations and law societies depending on their criteria.
Programme

Jan Dreyer  Dabelstein & Passehl, Hamburg; Vice-Chair, IBA Maritime and Transport Law Committee
Marco G Remiorz  Dabelstein & Passehl, Hamburg; President, AIJA Transport Law Commission

Organising Committee
Burcu Celikcapa-Bilgin  Ercin Bilgin Bektasoglu, Istanbul
Savas Inandioglu  Topdemir Inandioglu Komuc Law Office, Istanbul

Thursday 4 November

1800 – 2000  Pre-conference registration and welcome reception
The Marmara Taksim

All registered delegates and guests may attend. Please indicate on the registration form if you wish to attend.

Friday 5 November

0800 – 1730  Registration
0800 – 0900  Welcome coffee/tea
0900 – 0930  Welcome and opening remarks
Peter Appel  Gorrissen Federspiel, Copenhagen; Chair, IBA Maritime and Transport Law Committee
Tanja Jussila  Waselius & Wist, Helsinki; on behalf of the AIJA Bureau
Marco G Remiorz

0930 – 1245  Shipbuilding contracts
Since the latest financial crisis, the rate of cancellations of shipbuilding contracts has increased. Customers face problems in payments or taking out loans, so they either delay the delivery of ships or cancel the shipbuilding contracts completely. This will eventually lead to even fewer future orders and more serious financial problems might be faced. Even when the global economy recovers, the shipbuilding industry needs more time to improve. This session will discuss the challenges faced by the owners, the shipyards, and the financial institutions and in turn, the panel will try to propose a road map to get through the crisis.

Moderator
Savas Inandioglu

Speakers
Dilek Bektasoglu-Sanli  Ercin Bilgin Bektasoglu, Istanbul
Jan Dreyer
Matt Hannaford  Clyde & Co, London
Lucas Leite Marques  Law Offices of Carl Kincaid, Rio de Janeiro
Enrica Monzani  Siccardi Bregante, Genova
Aram Vos  Wiersma Van Campen Vos, Amsterdam; Vice-Chair, AIJA Transport Law Commission

1100 – 1130  Coffee/tea break

1245 – 1415  Lunch

1415 – 1530  Multimodal transportation (contracts)
Specific provisions on multimodal transportation in national transportation law are rare. The session provides an overview on existing provisions on multimodal transportation in international conventions and shows the daily challenges from a practitioner’s point of view. It discusses how the US solves conflicts on international bills of lading and domestic transportation law and addresses arguments used in various jurisdictions to determine the legal basis in a claim scenario by means of a case study.

AIJA is the only global association devoted to lawyers and inhouse counsel aged 45 and under. AIJA, through a wide range of meetings, seminars, law courses and advocacy, promotes professional cooperation and friendship among young, career building legal professionals around the world.

Intrigued by issues on the cutting edge of international law? Interested to build an international practice? Eager not only to become part of a network of thousands of career building lawyers and inhouse counsel from all over the world but also, with a little effort, to become their friends? Keen to go to seminars run by enthusiastic professionals who will share their ideas and involve you in discussions on the latest developments in law and business? Then AIJA is your association.

AIJA gives legal professionals an excellent opportunity to contribute to important topics concerning the profession in an international environment. Within AIJA, lawyers and inhouse counsel can share views and experiences with other colleagues from around the world and enhance their professional skills. We focus not only on legal skills but equally importantly on contributing to the broader professional development of our members which is of paramount importance to the 21st century lawyer and includes negotiation and management skills and the ability to work in a multi-cultural environment. By joining AIJA you will benefit from the input of and discussions with colleagues on an equal footing. We do not “lecture” – we “share, learn and benefit”.

Defending those principles, which are an intricate part of the legal profession worldwide, AIJA is also committed to the defence of human rights and the social responsibility of legal professionals.

International Bar Association
the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world’s leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of 35,000 individual lawyers and more than 197 bar associations and law societies spanning all continents. It has considerable expertise in providing assistance to the global legal community as well as being a source of distinguished legal commentators for international news outlets.

Maritime and Transport Law Committee overview
The Maritime and Transport Law Committee is one of the oldest and most established committees of the IBA with more than 650 members worldwide. The committee enables maritime law professionals to meet, create connections and discuss the most current legal issues in maritime and transport law.

European Regional Forum overview
The European Regional Forum has been developing and strengthening the existence of the IBA within the whole of Europe by promoting the goals of the IBA to members, non-members and others, disseminating professional know-how, and assisting the committees and other constituencies of the IBA to increase their presence in the different sub-regions of Europe, including parts of North Africa and the Middle East.

The goals of the Forum include addressing current and long-term needs of professional organisations and individual members within the geographical reach of the Forum, as well as increasing membership and participation in the IBA and integrating them within the organisation. The Forum will also facilitate cross-border activity between lawyers and bars in different European countries. It has a particular focus on cross-disciplinary activities.

Knowing the right people is often crucial but, when you have international clients or clients with international dealings, it can be of great advantage if your friends in high places are also in far-flung places.

As an International Bar Association member, working confidently across international borders presents no problems. You are able to draw on the world's most extensive expertise base to achieve the best possible outcome for both your client and your practice.

IBA membership offers the opportunity to meet, to interact with and to learn from like-minded lawyers and leading practitioners in many jurisdictions, right across the planet. Our membership roll runs to over 40,000 of the world's top lawyers and 197 Bar Associations and Law Societies worldwide.

Whatever your field of specialisation, we can provide you with instant access to a global network of fellow lawyers who are used to applying their local knowledge to the same or similar issues.

The IBA's on-going series of conferences and specialist meetings provides the perfect forum for convivial and constructive networking. Many an international merger or acquisition has been conceived at an IBA meeting and there are more than a few lawyers who say that joining the IBA was probably one of their more astute career moves.

What is more, the ability to market their firm in the right international circles has proven invaluable in many cases.

With membership of the International Bar Association, you can be sure of having all the right friends in all the right places, worldwide.

In the legal profession, there’s only one thing more important than what you know.
