

Competition Law for the Global Community : An International Seminar of Antitrust Essentials / Le droit de la concurrence dans une communauté globale : Séminaire International sur les concepts de base en la matière, AIJA : Wien, 2003, 195 pages, 100 EUR

BARFUSS Prof, Latest developments in the Austrian Competition Law, 3 pages

DEANE Patrick, Vertical agreements : Special issues in intellectual property cases, 16 pages

HOFFER Raoul, European Union Block Exemptions : Does your client's case fit the profile for an exemption to the general rule ? 9 pages

TARISSI DE JACOBIS Alessandra, Relevant market : why this concept is the key to most antitrust cases, 13 pages

URLESBERGER Franz, Relevant market : Market power and fundamentals of market definition, 6 pages

REINERT Mani, Vertical Agreements : Special issues in intellectual property cases : Franchising and the EC Regulation 2790/1999, 15 pages

RAMM-SCHMIDT Michaela, Dominant market position : IMS Health, Magill – an EU/US study of the intersection of abusive behaviour, essential facilities and intellectual property, 12 pages

FRAZER Tom, Beyond IMS : Article 82 and the Wrongful Acquisition of Dominance – was Don Quixote wrong ? 8 pages

HACK Christoph, Private Enforcement of Antitrust Essentials, 14 pages

GRISAY Dominique, International Competition Policy from Extra-Territoriality to Multilaterality, 21 pages

ALSOE Christian, Competition Law for the Global Community : Cartels: International co-operation in cartel enforcement – a discussion on new corporate leniency policies and other enforcement developments , 16 pages

PROCHASKA, Leniency policy for cartel product, 9 pages

REMNELID Pär, Mergers : Filing and Clearing a Multiple Jurisdictional Merger, 5 pages

IMPELMANN Norbert, Filing and Clearing a Multiple Jurisdictional Merger, 10 pages

PITOFSKY Robert, PATTERSON Donna & HOOKS Jonathan, The Essential Facilities Under US Antitrust Law, 27 pages

KNYAZEVA IV, The processes of economic concentration in Russia and methodological problems of antitrust control, 11 pages.