1. Introduction

Jan-Ove Becker and Rebecka Thörn welcomed everybody.

2. The Tokyo Congress

The Annual Congress 2017 will take place in Tokyo, 28 August – 1 September 2017. The labour and immigration law work shop will be on “Employment law disrupt – How AI and new technologies are hacking our business and changing the law and our work”. Our commission is also involved in organizing the working session “Introduction to AI and how AI may impact legal business” in which we have engaged Brian Kuhn from IBM, Japan and Ruben Agote from Cuatrecasas, Spain, as well as the working session “The smart lawyer leverages AI: Practical thoughts and IT tools for lawyers” in which we have engaged Zev Eigen from Littler, USA. A commission meeting will also be organized.

3. The Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar in Bratislava

The commission aims to yearly (preferably in October) organise the Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar with “hot topics”. This years seminar will take place in Bratislava 13-14 October 2017. Voluntee speakers are very welcome to contact Rebecka Thörn. The seminar is a double seminar organised together with the T.R.A.D.E. commission. Bratislava is easily accesible also from the airport of Vienna.

4. Half-Year Conference Autumn 2017 in Girona

The conference will be held 15-18 November 2017. A commission meeting will be held.

5. Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar in Turin 2018

Nicky de Groot, Rebekka Strumpfrock and Matteo Cocuzza are planning to organize the Annual Labour and Immigration Law seminar in Turin in October 2018.

6. Future Events/ Proposals for new events for 2019

The members were encouraged to come forward with ideas for future events and contact the commission officers.

7. How to attract new members to our commission/AIJA

The members were encouraged to consider how we can attract new members to our commission and AIJA. All ideas are welcomed by the commission officers.

Jan-Ove Becker and Rebecka Thörn thanked everybody for attending the meeting.
